An Invitation from GASCO's President

On behalf of The Board of Directors of the Georgia Society of Clinical Oncology (GASCO), I invite you to attend GASCO's 2015 Annual Meeting and Officially Licensed Best of ASCO® program scheduled for September 11 - 12, 2015. Our program committee has put together an exceptional and relevant agenda with CEUs available through the Georgia Regents University (GRU.)

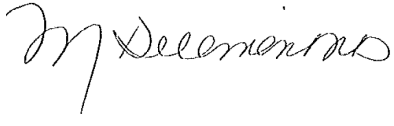
This year GASCO's Program Co-chairs are Dr. Rodolfo Bordoni, and Dr. Andrew Pippas, who have brought together a very distinguished faculty. Please review the complete agenda that follows. Registration is free for GASCO members, hematology/oncology Fellows and medical students.

On Friday, September 11th, we continue the very highly rated Clinical Think Tank sessions and begin the Best of ASCO® summaries. After the President's Reception, we invite you to stay for a dinner presentation on advances in the treatment of ovarian cancer.

On Saturday we continue the Best of ASCO® discussions but we are very excited to add our inaugural presentation of the John B. Amos Foundation Lectures to GASCO's Annual Meeting. We have also invited ASCO's Chief Medical Officer, Dr. Richard Schilsky, to provide a timely policy update from the ASCO headquarters and Capitol Hill. The leadership of Cancer Patient Navigators of Georgia have planned a Saturday educational track for clinical and non-clinical cancer patient navigators.

The Georgia Cancer Care Community has a great story of accomplishment! Please join us to hear the clinical presentations and network with your colleagues.

Best Wishes,



Melissa Dillmon, MD, President
